BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE B.K.SHARMA

Heard Mr. B. K. Mahajan, learned counsel for the petitioner as well as Ms R. Chakraborty, learned State counsel representing the State respondents. I have also heard Mr. C. Baruah, learned C.G.S.C.

By means of this writ petition, the petitioner, who is the elder brother of late Manoj Barman, has prayed for a direction to the respondents not to disturb in performing the Sradha ceremony of late Barman scheduled to be held on 15.10.2007 and 16.10.2007.

As per the averments made in the writ application, late Manoj Barman was allegedly a member of militant organization of the United Liberation Front of Assam. The petitioner is the elder brother of the deceased. It is his case that there might be obstruction from the authorities towards performing the Sradha ceremony and the visitors may not be allowed to visit the place of residence of the deceased.

Considering the submission made, I dispose of this writ petition providing that the petitioner and others involved with the Sradha ceremony shall perform the same in accordance with law. The army and police authorities may allow the same. In case of any action is required to be taken, the authorities may take the same in accordance with law.

Writ petition is disposed of.
